"THE HATCH" IS A SEPARATE PROGRAM,
TAILORED FOR ONE ARTIST AT A TIME,
IN LONDON.

ABOUT THE RABBIT HOLE:

Founded in 2008 in New York City, the rabbit hole is a creative community numbering 3000+ in 56 countries. The residency program that bases its principals on deconstructing creative processes while establishing a new methodology called The Rabbit Hole Method.™

The Rabbit Hole Method™ is a process of inquiry developed by the collective, that extracts and distills from contemporary artistic practises, philosophy, mysticism, mathematics and dance. It includes the teaching of Hazrat Inayat Khan, Farid Ud-Din Attar, Jorge Luis Borges, Alejandro Jodorowsky, Lewis Carroll, among others.

WHO CAN APPLY?

Artists, curators, writers, poets, researchers, sound artists, performers, photographers, filmmakers, digital artists, from all backgrounds are invited to the open call.

We invite the curious minded who have a particular interest in unraveling processes around deconstruction through mediums such a poetry, research, theatre and performance.

PROGRAM ELEMENTS

1 / CREATIVE RETREAT

Located directly on the Regent's Canal, the hatch is a space for creative retreat, set up as a contemplative encounter and reflective residency focusing on independent research. Rather than public happenings similar to other residencies, this is specific to the intimacy of a home environment.

2 / INDIVIDUALLY TAILORED + CURATED STAY

The selected hatch resident will work with the rabbit hole to create a unique program according to the artist's interests, with direct contacts with mentors from music, theatre, dance and visual art disciplines.

Including: gallery opening invites, art talks, venue introductory meetings, meetings with galerists, studio visits, workshops, art tours, and an artist dinner held at the hatch, will be arranged.

3 / INTRODUCTION TO THE RABBIT HOLE METHOD

The resident will be mentored with their proposed project, and introduced to the trademarked creative process, "the rabbit hole method" see below
